SITUATION AND DESCRIPTION

The premises are located at the Southern end of the well established Marsh Barton Trading Estate at the junction with Budlake Road and Matford Park Road. The premises have easy access to the main spine road through the estate, Bad Homburg Way, which provide access to the remainder of the estate. In addition its central location offers easy links to the City Centre and to the A30, M5 and A38 / A380 trunk roads.

Exeter is a historic Cathedral City and forms the main administrative centre for the County of Devon. Exeter is a University City steeped in history being the capital city and county town of Devon and has firmly established a reputation of being the commercial centre of the South West. The city has a population of approximately 110,000 with a 'drive to work' population of some 480,000 within a 45 minute catchment area.

Unit 18 is a mid terraced unit forming part of a block of light industrial units. There is a concrete surfaced forecourt at the front and further shared car parking within the development. The premises would suit a variety of potential occupiers who require industrial, manufacturing or trade counter space in a central and convenient location with access to all main routes.
